MAY 2020 NEWSLETTER

THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOR
HADDONFIELD, NJ

"Stewarding God's Love"

Congregational Resources: Thank You for Being Stewards of God's Love

Thank you to all those who are mailing in their offering envelopes or giving electronically. In these new and unsettling times, Our Savior's faithful givers are continuing to share their offerings so that others may know God's love. The pews may be empty and the building silent, but our faith and commitment continue to be at work in the world.

A Look at How Our Gifts Make a Difference

LCOS is still supporting local organizations on the front lines of helping others, and our gifts are needed more than ever as hunger and uncertainty threaten many lives. During the past two months our gifts have helped those served by Our Father's House, Caring Hearts Ministries, the Peace Center of Bridge of Peace Community Church, Camden, and the Haddonfield community case worker. (For more details on our giving, please see the Social Ministry Committee report below.)

The Easter cross reminds us that God comes down in love and salvation and gives in abundance so that we may share in abundance. Thank you for sharing your love and blessings with others!

Social Ministry Committee: Your Offerings At Work

In March 2020, Social Ministry Committee sent a budgeted contribution of $1000.00 to My Father's House, which is a court mandated substance abuse counseling center in Gloucester City for male and female teenagers and adults. Social Ministry Committee also sent a budgeted contribution of $500.00 to Caring Hearts Ministries, an organization that helps children and their families that are affected by HIV/AIDS.

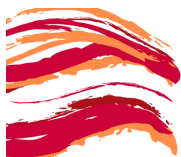

In April 2020, Social Ministry Committee plans to send a budgeted contribution of $2500 to support the Haddonfield Community Caseworker. A donation of $2500 will also be sent to the Peace Center at Bridge of Peace Lutheran Church in Camden, a ministry to the poor and homeless in Camden.

Thank you for your offerings which make these contributions possible.

LCOS temporarily suspending meal delivery to My Father's House due to Coronavirus

Caring Hearts Spring Fling Cancelled due to Coronavirus

The Caring Hearts Spring Fling which was scheduled for Friday April 17, 2020 has been cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic. Caring Hearts is planning for a Back to School party the end of August. We had started a socks and deodorant collection. Please hold onto any socks and deodorant that you have purchased. Social Ministry Committee members will deliver them to next Caring Hearts event.

CONFIRMATION
Affirmation of Baptism

9 to Participate in Affirmation of Baptism in the Fall instead of June 7

The new tradition at Our Savior is to hold the Affirmation of Baptism for eighth graders on the first Sunday in June. Due to the Coronavirus pandemic and the uncertainty of when we will be able to gather again in sanctuary worship in numbers over 100, it has been decided to postpone Confirmation Sunday to a date early in the fall. They will finish their learn event classes by Zoom Meeting in May and have already attended a Zoom pre-confirmation retreat in April where they discerned how they will live out the promises they will make at their Affirmation of Baptism service. Please keep these youth in your prayers as they wait to participate in the Confirmation until fall; Brian Bogina, Grace Ewing, Sarah Fetter, Ben Hintz, Theo Howard, Collin Johnson, Javier Miller, Matt Morris, and Abby Ryan.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Our Savior is a faith community that worships Jesus as our Lord, proclaims and shares God's Word, welcomes all people, serves human needs, and nurtures personal and spiritual growth through fellowship all to the glory of God.

“The New Normal Will Not Be Like the Normal We Knew”

By Pastor Wayne

We hear it all the time. We wonder it ourselves. The question haunts us every day we remain in a state of quarantine and social distancing to prevent the spread and flatten the curve of the Coronavirus pandemic. “When will our lives get back to normal?” As I’ve thought about this question I’ve come to realize something in this Easter season. Just as resurrection life is a new life, not like the life we knew prior to death and new life, so too the new normal after the passing of the Coronavirus pandemic will not be like the normal life we knew prior to its affliction. Martin Luther was known for saying we all experience “little deaths” and “little resurrections” throughout our lives. I believe this Coronavirus has been more than a “little death” in our lives and the lives of billions around the world.

Sure, there will be certain new practices we all must adhere to in the initial re-entry into normal life after the stay-at-home has been lifted. We will likely have to wear face masks for at least the first few months when going out in public where people will be closer than six feet from us (stores, movies, restaurants, etc.). We will continue to carry sanitary wipes with us to wipe down surfaces and objects in places and from people outside our home. There are sure to be others for those of us who begin to re-enter the world from which we have been shut off since mid-March.

There have been other “new” practices and experiences we’ve adopted and had during this time of isolation and distancing as well. In our home I know we’ve cooked more healthy meals and eaten them at the table followed by discussion of our days (and in our case our daughter’s wedding that will be held one year from the day I write this) that can last for at least a half hour after we’ve finished. We’ve started a family trivia night using an internet meeting platform that allows various family members in various locations to all participate in a fun game night. We’ve become more connected to long-time friends. We call our neighbors and talk to those who walk by (and there are a lot more these days) as they get their daily exercise from being cooped up all day. We think about other people more these days. Who might need something from the store when we go? Who might be lonely and need a call? Who are at risk and may need a comforting word on the phone, text message, or a good old fashioned card?

Easter people live in the new normal our Risen Lord calls us into from the baptismal waters of rebirth and renewal. Just as death does not have the last word in our existence neither does this Coronavirus. And just as the risen Jesus was somewhat unrecognizable to the Jesus his disciples had once known, so too, the new normal our post-Coronavirus lives will not be like the normal we once knew before it. But it will be life! It will be new. The question before us as our faith gives up hope in living into this new normal will be what practices and lifestyles we lived during our time of isolation will be “kingdom worthy” of continuing after the ban is lifted? Is it possible that while this pandemic has adversely affected the lives we once knew, could it also be a “God moment” of beginning to live a different kind of life that is worth living even more?

I pray you are all well and being patient rather than being a patient during this time of social distancing and isolation. I pray you have discovered a new way to live that has brought some joy into your world and a world filled with fear and sadness. I pray you may experience the true meaning of the communion of saints and being a member of the body of Christ while we remain together at a distance. May God’s peace be with you this month and always.

Livestream Worship Continues on Facebook Live Even After Sanctuary Worship Resumes

Many of you have been able to enjoy the Facebook Live livestream worship Our Savior has been able to provide since we suspended sanctuary worship as of March 15. Many have shared how much they appreciate the ability to gather for worship in the virtual world of the internet when we could not physically gather in the sanctuary. We’ve seen people gather for our livestream worship we don’t normally see and others who are visiting guests. It has been on our “To Do” list for at least three years and it took this Coronavirus and a very talented seminary intern (thank you Vicar Josh) to get us launched.

Seeing the value in this new way to worship for so many of our members and guests made it easy for the Congregation Council to move forward and purchase the equipment needed to run the livestream worship from our pre-existing cameras and sound system going forward. We hope more of our members and interested guests who find us online will continue to use this means of gathering with the body of Christ at Our Savior when they cannot do so physically on Sundays.

Given the value of this ministry we are also asking members who may be interested in keeping our livestream ministry going strong to contact the office as we are looking to train people to operate the livestream during worship as Vicar Josh will only be with us until July 31. In the meantime check out Facebook Live worship on Sundays at 10:30. We’d love to see you there!

Need A Face Mask???

Our member, Tina Heinze, who owns a costume making business, has turned her business into a mask making company during this pandemic. If you need masks please contact her: 856-616-0052 or tinascostumes@verizon.net to order.

An Intern's Confession

As the title suggests, I have a confession to make to all of you.

I LOVE that we are worshipping digitally now.

I DON'T love that we can't meet in person as well. I DON'T love that this virus is keeping us from so many of the people we love. I DON'T love wearing a mask everywhere I go. I DON'T love the sense of insecurity and fear, both of a virus and its economic impacts. I DON'T love the uncertainty so many feel around how they will provide food for their families. And I DON'T love that so many families are divided as one member of a family fights on the front lines of battling this disease and must stay away from spouses and children for their own protection.

But still, there's something about our newfound digital sense of community that I love and cherish. I love getting to read and pray through your responses during the Prayers of the Church. I love seeing you react at points during a sermon or children's message, in ways that us more "stoic" Lutherans probably would not exuberantly shout out during a more "normal" worship service. I love that members past and present are reconnecting across states, and from coast to coast, and that even my own family gets to worship with me from both California and Florida.

We work each and every week to make sure that our services reach you in the best way that we can. Thank you for your words of encouragement and gratitude; and thank you for your grace when the technology fails us. As we continue to learn and grow in this digital age, know that even in this bizarre setup, I feel the Body of Christ gathered, and love worshipping with each and every one of you... but still looking forward to seeing you all in person again when it is safe and responsible to do so.

Vicar Josh

Pantry During Covid-19 Quarantine

To support our Pantry Families and protect our Pantry Volunteers during Covid-19, we have temporarily suspended the current Pantry process. Grocery donations have nearly ceased since the church has been closed to worship and closed to all the groups that use the church and donate groceries. We do not want our Volunteers to spend anymore time than is necessary for their own families in the grocery store.

During the last 2 weeks we have over-packed for each family, with a final extra pack and delivery on Friday 4/10/20. The few extra canned goods were donated to Bridge of Peace who has seen a 60% increase in their needs. An Acme gift card was mailed to each of the families, including a gracious donation of a gift card from Jen Rhodes to all the families. In 4 weeks we will re evaluate when we will open the pantry and either send out another gift card or re-open.

Our congregation has been very generous over the years supporting our Pantry Families, and the Families have been very thankful. During this quarantine time, instead of donating groceries, please send a check made out to the LCOS Pantry. Thank you so much for your continued support.

Wine Tasting Event - Postponed until further notice

Faithful Giving in March Enables Ministry to Continue

As you can see from Financial Secretary Shannon Foskett's report in this issue the congregation exceeded Offering Income projections in March by a few thousand dollars. Thank you! Your continued and regular support of the mission we share enables our congregation and the work of the ELCA to continue without fear of cutbacks or even cancellation. We have even started to see non-members who are gathering with us for our livestream worship contribute electronically through Simply Giving available on our website. We pray it won't be long until we can give thanks in person when we gather for worship and celebrate the gifts God gives to us of ourselves, our time, and our possessions.

Bible Discussion for Daily Living Continues by Zoom on Mondays & Wednesdays

What does this mean? That's the question Martin Luther asks to frame his explanation of the core tenets of the Christian faith such as The Commandments, Creed, Lord's Prayer, and sacraments in his Small Catechism. It is also the key question we are asking each week in the Bible Discussion for Daily Living that is now being held by Zoom Meeting on Monday nights at 7:30 and Wednesday mornings at 9:30. Each week's discussion is independent of previous weeks to enable people to join in at any time. A church-wide email was sent out for members to click on the link to join Zoom meeting or you can check out our website (oursaviorhaddonfield.org), or see the insert for how to join. We hope to see and hear you in May!

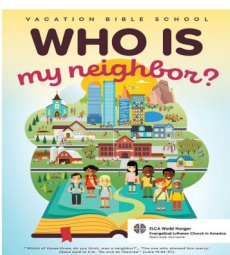

Thank you to everyone who reached out and prayed for me during my maternity leave. I am excited to say my son Joseph McCurdy Baldwin was born on March 4th. I wanted to let everyone know that I have decided to come back to work earlier than planned. I officially started back on Tuesday, April 14th and I am glad to be back to be here for you and your family during this unprecedented time.

Sunday School:

For all of my Sunday School families. I will be sending out a weekly email on Saturday evenings about the lesson your child would have been learning about that week in Sunday School. There will be a video to explain the story and an activity that your family can do together. Parents do not worry, you do not have to know the story perfectly to do this with your child. Please remember that I will still have a weekly children's message during worship to introduce the lesson we will be learning.

For my families with a child that is in High School. I will be sending an email out on Saturdays with a link for weekly Oasis Zoom meetings. Our meeting will take place on Sundays starting at 6:30pm.

If anyone needs anything or if your child needs anything, please do not hesitate to reach out to me. I will be working from home so you can email me at any time. I cannot wait to get back to church and to see all of you! I miss you all dearly! "See" you on Sunday! Jaime

Vacation Bible School:

As you know our theme for Vacation Bible School this year is "Who is My Neighbor?". We will be finding a new way to be a neighbor this year for VBS. It deeply saddens me to say this but we will be doing VBS differently. For starters, VBS will only be open to LCOS members this year and we will not be meeting in person. Every day there will be a Bible verse, new songs and an activity on how you can be a "neighbor" during this time. VBS will still take place from July 27th to 31st and if you are interested in signing up, or have questions please contact Jaime at LCOSJaime@gmail.com. This will be a different experience but one that will make an impact in our community.

Acolytes:

Acolytes as of right now our annual Acolyte Appreciation Dinner will be May 31 at 6:00pm. Please let Jaime know by May 27th if you are able to attend, if we need to reschedule, I will let you know the new date. Also, please let Jaime know if you have any trips planned for the summer and cannot acolyte.

National Day of Prayer Cancelled Due to Coronavirus

Due to the Coronavirus pandemic the annual National Day of Prayer Breakfast regularly scheduled for the first Thursday in May has been cancelled due to a statewide mandate for residents to remain in their homes. We do encourage our members to lift our nation in prayer on Thursday, May 7, and to remember all those who have been affected by the Coronavirus, including;

- Those afflicted with the virus and are hospitalized and in ICU
- Doctors, nurses, and healthcare workers who risk their own health in caring for the health and life of others
- Teachers and students as they teach and learn in a challenging way
- Business owners and employees whose income has been compromised and their ability to reopen or go back to work as before is in question
- Essential workers (such as grocery personnel and IT workers who maintain the ability for people to work from home from their office laptops, and others) as they too risk infection to meet the needs of others.

First Holy Communion Postponed Until Regular Worship Resumes in Sanctuary

Like so many other milestones in one's faith formation that occur in the spring, Our Savior is postponing the celebration of those Second and Third graders who were originally to have received their First Holy Communion back on March 29. A date has not yet been chosen mainly due to the fact we are awaiting a statewide lifting of restrictions of groups gathering in larger numbers than 100 as we anticipate a worship attendance on that day to exceed this number at the 10:30 worship. Families of children receiving their first communion will be notified of possible options in June if the restriction is lifted in May.

I want to extend my gratitude to the people of Our Savior. Your kind cards, thoughts and prayers got me through some very dark times during my illness. Please know that I'm feeling better every day. I'm hoping to return to work once the quarantine is lifted. Again my Thanks.

Peace,
LuAnne Fogelson.

Zoom Bible Discussion for Daily Life

During this time of remaining in our homes and having schedules that may be a bit more flexible I thought I would send out a congregation-wide invitation to be a part of Our Savior's Wednesday Bible Discussion for Daily Living by Zoom Meeting on the topic of Martin Luther's Small Catechism. Over the next 7 weeks we will discuss the following topics:

April 22 & 27: The Ten Commandments

April 29 & May 4: The Apostle's Creed

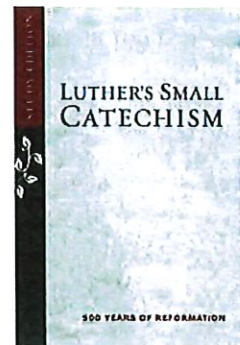

May 6 & 11: The Lord's Prayer

May 13 & 18: the Sacrament of Holy Baptism

May 20 & 25: Confession and Forgiveness

May 27 & June 1: The Sacrament of the Altar

Jun 3 & 8: The Marriage Service and Household Blessings

If you do not have a Small Catechism and would like one we can mail a pocket size edition in the mail, or you can download the app from your App Store. Search "Luther's Small Catechism" and use the one with a cranberry color background and leaves on a vine icon from the Publishing House ELCA. It's free!

Then join us using the link highlighted in blue at the end of this email to gain access to the Zoom discussion on Wednesdays at 9:30 AM. Follow the prompts on your screen to "Join with Video" and "Join with computer audio."

We hope to see some new faces in the weeks to come.

Blessings in this time of being together while apart.

How Can I Keep From Singing?

Our May spring choir concert had been given the theme “How Can I Keep From Singing” and on the darker days, I roll my eyes at the irony and say that, well, this quarantine is how we keep from singing. And yet, through all I see around me, we cannot be kept from singing. Maybe our song becomes even more meaningful. So this month’s musings are brought to you by the text of the hymn that inspired me for the concert and for the last decade.

What though my joys and comforts die? I know my Savior liveth. What though the darkness gather round? Songs in the night God giveth.

Though the comforts of our usual gatherings are not available right now, we have found many ways to be together. We still workshop on FacebookLive. I am sure all of you have heard of Zoom and hopefully have been able to use it for meals and game nights with others. If you are my friend on Facebook, you probably know that I do a weekly Saturday piano hour where I play for you and me for a little levity and connection. Many musicians make music from their balconies or over Facebook. Even if we cannot be in church together, I hope you still sing along with the songs you hear and with our hymns.

I lift my eyes, the cloud grows thin. I see the blue above it. And day by day this pathway smooths, Since first I learned to love it.

Here are the things that give me hope, where I see “the blue above it” in this new normal: the numbers that are still climbing yet beginning to slow down, the generosity of neighbors and local business, the chalked sidewalks and rain-bowed windows. We have hope that this path, as we keep walking faithfully, will get smoother. This is temporary.

No storm can shake my inmost calm. While to that refuge clinging, Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth. How can I keep from singing?

The church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord. So, dear church, I hope this situation doesn’t keep you from singing. Jesus is still Lord of all, and that’s a fact we can cling to and sing about. Sing in your home, on your walks, in your car. Sing with your kids, your partner, your dog or cat, your friends, or by yourself. As Augustine said, when you sing, you pray twice. So be safe and well, and don’t let anyone or anything keep you from singing.

Have you been wanting to learn how to read music? Do you kind of follow the dots on the page, or do you rely on your pew neighbor in church, or do you just kinda “fake it” on Sunday mornings? Now is the time to learn how to read music! Pauline is offering Zoom sessions for anyone interested - both group and individual meetings work. You do not need to know anything about music as long as you are willing to learn! Contact her for more information.
