Preparing for Sanctuary Worship Reopening in September – GET VACCINATED

As we prepare to fully reopen worship in September the Worship and Music Committee, Council, and Pastor Wayne all agree the safety of the congregation remains an utmost importance, and we pray it is the same for our congregation members. The Delta variant of the Coronavirus is proving to be more highly contagious and the strain that is infecting and hospitalizing the non-vaccinated at an extremely high rate. As such, all members are strongly encouraged to get vaccinated for their own health safety and the safety of our children not yet eligible for vaccination.

REMINDER FOR AUGUST WORSHIP: The 10:30 worship service still requires everyone attending to wear a mask so please enter the building wearing your mask and for the duration of worship. There have been some Sundays in July where everyone was fully vaccinated and masks were deemed optional, but this puts those who are unvaccinated in an awkward situation. Therefore, the 10:30 worship in August remains a masked worship service.

In September Our Savior plans to move forward with fully reopening sanctuary worship and Sunday school providing there is no surge in the Delta variant that warrants remaining at our current restrictions. The protocols for worship beginning in September are as follows:

BEFORE ATTENDING: DO NOT ATTEND WORSHIP IF YOU HAVE:

- A temperature over 100F.
- Non-allergy related coughing and sneezing.
- Shortness of breath.
- Been exposed to someone with COVID-19 in past 2 weeks.
- A higher risk for severe illness.

8:00, 9:15, & 10:30 WORSHIP TIMES: FULLY VACCINATED WORSHIPPERS

- Masks worn at your discretion.
- All pews available for seating.
- Congregational singing of liturgy and hymns.
- Holy Communion by intinction from Pastor or by self-contained cup/wafer in pew.

8:00, 9:15, & 10:30 WORSHIP TIMES: NON-VACCINATED WORSHIPPERS

- Masks worn to protect your health and health of unvaccinated children
- All pews available for seating.
- Refrain from congregational singing of liturgy and hymns to reduce water vapor dispersion
- Holy Communion by intinction from Pastor or by self-contained cup/wafer in pew.

The 9:15 Reflections Worship will continue to provide a Zoom link for worshippers to participate in worship even though in-person attendance will be resuming. The Zoom link will remain on our website.

The 10:30 Worship will continue to provide a Livestream participation with a link on the website indefinitely going forward as many have found this to be an excellent way to “Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy” when physical attendance is not an option.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Our Savior is a faith community that worships Jesus as our Lord, proclaims and shares God's Word, welcomes all people, serves human needs, and nurtures personal and spiritual growth through fellowship all to the glory of God.

“The Power of Habit”

By Pastor Wayne Zschech

Ever wonder why we do what we do? I’ve been re-reading the book The Power of Habit: why we do what we do in life and business by Charles Duhigg and contemplating how the Coronavirus pandemic has impacted our habits, especially when it comes to worship. But first, why do we do what we do habitually? Duhigg explains all habits are basically three parts. “First, there is a cue, a trigger that tells your brain to go into automatic mode and which habit to use. Then there is a routine, which can be physical or mental or emotional. Finally, there is a reward, which helps your brain figure out if this particular loop is worth remembering for the future.” One example was how Febreze added a fresh scent to their spray so that when a person finished cleaning a room or making a bed (the cue) they would spray Febreze on the carpet or bedspread (routine) and smell the fresh scent (reward) that indicated the room was not only clean but smelled fresh too. Craving that fresh scent in one’s home perpetuated the habit of using Febreze in one’s cleaning routine.

When it came to worship prior to the pandemic our Sunday habit cycle may have been waking up on Sunday morning (the cue), going to church and sitting in the pew and participating in worship and/or talking with other parishioners at Coffee Hour or outside either after or before worship (the routine), and experiencing a deeper connection with God and God’s people as a result of the experience (the reward). However, during the pandemic the cue and reward remained relatively the same, but the routine changed significantly. Instead of the process involved with physically going to church and engaging with people in person, the routine likely became one of setting up your computer or casting it to your television at about 10:29 and then participating in the worship from the comfort of your family room chair or sofa in your pajamas. For those receiving the Worship In The Home materials it may have been similar to the above but instead of participating in the livestream you used the materials to have a prolonged devotional time similar to the material provided in the Christ in Our Home devotional books.

Now the routine is not quite what it was before the pandemic (we still are wearing masks at 10:30 and there is no coffee hour), but we are able to sing the hymns as a congregation and receive Holy Communion from the front of the church rather than a piece of bagel or wheat cracker with some grape juice at home. We are able to visit with other parishioners before and after worship be it inside or outside the church. We are able to share the Peace with more than a text or a tweet or a comment in the livestream. In short, we are able to be the physically gathered body of Christ rather than only the virtually gathered one we’ve had to be for the last 16 months.

September is right around the corner and with it will come Rally Sunday. We plan to fully open for in person worship with minimal restrictions by September 12 as long as the current uptick in cases recedes and the risk of spreading contagion is further minimized. I want to encourage everyone who is currently not yet vaccinated to consider doing so before coming back to in person worship both for the sake of your own health and the health of our unvaccinated children who will be in Sunday school. In the meantime, I invite all those who are vaccinated to begin re-establishing your previous Sunday morning habit of worshipping at church. The reward is not just being “back in church” but also “being the church together.” So many of those who have restarted worshipping in person have shared how much more meaningful their worship experience is now that they can do so together with others as we once did prior to March 15, 2020. I look forward to leading our worship together on Sundays, whatever your habit may be.

Worship In The Home to End August 29

During the pandemic the ELCA provided online materials for Worship In The Home so that members of congregations without a livestream or other online worship options could remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy by hearing God’s word and reflecting on it. Pastor Wayne and Sandy DeDonatis used those online materials to create a paper version of the worship along with either a previous sermon or other reflection by Pastor Wayne for those members who did not have online access. Now that the pandemic is nearing its close and most congregations have resumed in person worship, the ELCA will be discontinuing the Worship In The Home resource at the end of August, and consequently, so will Our Savior. We hope those who received the materials found them useful in their Sunday worship routine and invite you to rejoin the congregation for in person worship, especially if you are fully vaccinated.

Pantry Moving Forward:

As we safely emerge from the Pandemic, we look back on lessons learned. One lesson we learned from the monthly grocery gift cards for our Pantry Families, is that they like the flexibility of the gift cards, ex the option to buy fresh produce. We also know that there is dignity in buying your own groceries.

Hybrid Method: Starting this September we have decided to use a hybrid method for our Pantry Families.

- Instead of food delivery twice a month, we will pack and deliver groceries once a month.
- Instead of utilizing the monetary donations to buy groceries to keep the Pantry stocked, we will use the monetary donations for grocery gift cards (half of what they are currently getting monthly).

Our Pantry Families are still in need. Please continue your generous monetary donations. When you have the opportunity please continue to donate groceries to the grocery cart to help re-stock the Pantry.

Pantry Grocery Needs:

- Canned Tuna
- Canned Chicken
- Canned Vegies
- Canned Fruit

July Council Actions Synopsis

No Church Council Meetings in July and August.

Deodorant Collection

Social Ministry Committee assists Caring Hearts families that are seen by Cooper Hospital's Pediatric Infectious Disease Practice. Caring Hearts is hosting an outdoor Back-to-School event planned for August 13th, to be held at the Armitage Pavillion on the Collingswood side of Cooper River Park near Route 130. LCOS has been asked to contribute men's and women's deodorant, at least 2 dozen of each. A collection box for Caring Hearts is available on the shelves outside Parish Hall for your donations. Deadline is August 8th. Thank you in advance for your generosity. Contact Betsy Kuehn or Eva Shaw for more information.

Thank you for Toothbrush and Toothpaste Collection for Caring Hearts

Social Ministry Committee assists Caring Hearts families that are seen by Cooper Hospital's Pediatric Infectious Disease Practice. We usually support the seasonal holiday parties by providing baked goods and refreshments as well as a collected item (underwear, baby wipes, socks, deodorant, and gifts from Advent Giving Tree) and provide assistance at these parties. We also support Caring Hearts with a monetary donation in March and a special Christmas donation. We helped Caring Hearts prepare and provide food for Thanksgiving dinners for families served thru Cooper Hospital's Pediatric Infectious Disease Practice. These events were all cancelled in 2020 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Caring Hearts assembled tote bags filled with various personal care products such as shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes, bars of soap, and deodorant that the Cooper staff gave to families at their appointments in June. The goal was to fill about 25 tote bags with these personal care items. LCOS was asked to collect full size toothpaste (not the little sample toothpaste) and toothbrushes, at least 25 of each. Thank you to LCOS members for your generosity, we exceeded this goal with 54 toothpastes and 74 toothbrushes. Once the tote bags are filled, the remainder of the toothpaste and toothbrushes will be donated for Camp Bright Feathers and the Back-to-School Party in August. Camp Bright Feathers is a week-long summer camp in Medford, NJ for children affected by HIV/AIDS to be held August 22-27.

Sunday School RALLY DAY

Summer, summertime... is coming to an end....

September 13th is Rally Sunday! There are a lot of fun things planned for our kickoff to the school year! We will be starting off the morning with Sunday School registration at 9:30AM in the Parish Hall. You can also pre-register on the church website starting August 15th. At 10:15 we will be kicking off the School Year with our new Sunday School program! We invite all 3 year olds to 6th graders to join us on the 3rd floor to start the school year! During the 10:30 service, we will be doing a Backpack Blessing for students of all ages, as well as teachers. Please bring your backpack to church with you so we can bless them for a successful school year! Following 10:30 worship we will be having an old fashioned Block Party! We will be shutting down the street and having a BBQ! But not just a BBQ, we are having a bounce house, water slide (whether pending), Dunk Tank with Pastor Wayne in the Tank and a few other surprises. So how can you help? The Church will be providing the Hot Dogs and Burgers, we are asking you to bring either a side, salad or dessert. If your last name starts with A-M, please bring a side or salad. If your last name starts with N-Z, please bring a dessert. We hope to see you all there! Remember, this is open to the whole congregation!

WANTED Sunday School Teachers

Help Wanted!

We are looking for a couple of Sunday School Teachers to help with the 3rd & 4th grade class, as well as the 5th & 6th grade class! If you can help as a team teacher, please email me at LCOSJAIME@GMAIL.COM. No experience necessary! All teaching materials will be provided, so you do not have to have the Bible memorized and it is about a 2 hour a week commitment.

Bring back the Acolytes!!!

I am very excited to announce starting in September, we will be inviting our acolytes back!! Please save the date of September 12th at 6:30 for acolyte training! I am inviting all acolytes to attend because everyone needs a refresher since it has been a LONG time!! Please let me know if you are able to attend or if your child is interested in acolyting again. You can email me at LCOSJAIME@GMAIL.COM.

Reunited... and it feels so GOOD!

I look forward to starting Oasis back up in September! Our first meeting will be September 26th. Please remember that Oasis is open to all 9th to 12th graders. Even if you have never attended before, please join us! The full Oasis Schedule will be printed in the September Messenger.

What are you praying for?

How often do you pray in a day? If you asked me this question this past week, I would have said about 100 times a day during the week. Have you ever noticed you pray more in times of need or concern? Well this last week, I was in and out of Urgent Care and doctor's offices with Joseph more times than I want to count. Every time I was driving to one of them, I was praying the whole drive. I was praying that Joseph would feel better and that he could take a deep breath easily. I was also praying that God would calm me down and help me be strong when I was scared for my son's health. After I had these moments with God in the car, I would feel a sense of calm come over me. But now I am looking back at this last week and I am thinking, why do I call out to God the most when I am scared or need something?

This is the human in me, I am quick to ask for help but how often do I praise God and thank God in prayer? Not enough if I am being honest! So how do I fix this? It makes me think back to an article I wrote in the beginning of the summer. I talked about being conscious about my daily devotions. Well I am going to be adding to this. I am going to be conscious to thank God daily in my time that I feel most present with God. Starting this week, I am going to try and write down 3 praises and 3 struggles. Some days I may have more or some days I may have less. I invite you to all join me this month in this journey with me. My take away from this is that I can feel closer to God and continue to grow my relationship with God daily. This can be a great way to do nighttime prayers as a family or prayer before dinner. Let me know how this works out for you and your family.

The Weeds of Convenience

I was very excited when LCOS decided to have a local mission trip so I could participate without having to miss a Sunday. A lot of the work I did was ripping out weeds in front of and around the Bridge Of Peace buildings. Most of it was where you would expect – grass that hadn't been edged leaning onto the pavement and determined weeds making their way through the cracks. It was tedious, but made for very rewarding before-and-afters. But just as I thought I was done, I realized that what I thought was just a grassy area actually was a paved path leading to the back of the property. The grass had turned into some sort of burned out green carpet that stubbornly covered up the path. If you didn't know what it was supposed to look like, you could just go on walking on the grass, without even knowing what needed to be done in order to create a path to make it more accessible to everyone. Several hours later, there was a path, and someone who was wheelchair bound could have access to the back of the building.

I think so often we don't bother to look closer to see the actual path that needs to be taken. The grass looks okay, and we haven't heard complaints. We don't want to put in the hours and elbow grease to change something that looks just fine to most people. We often don't want to sing hymns or anthems that require us to really pay attention to a trickier melody or words that were written with the intention to make us think. We may only turn on online church, even though at this point it is safe to attend our services (especially our 8A.M. fully vaccinated worship service), because we can stay in our pajamas and maybe even do several things around the house while listening on and off. We may not want to learn about problematic policies, because doing so would mean accepting that we live in a flawed system in which some people are at an advantage and others at a disadvantage. We would rather keep singing the same old easy songs and hearing the same old sermons. We're fine with the overgrown grass because clearing a path to help everyone requires work.

Jesus's active ministry was only three years, but he always helped whenever someone asked him. He always actively worked to heal the people around him and didn't just accept the status quo or if something looked "fine" or "the way it's always been." Even when it was inconvenient (remember when some people just lowered a guy through the roof so Jesus could heal him? Bet that wasn't on the to-do list that day!), Jesus actively worked to make things better and more just.

May we not just overlook the overgrown path and mistake it for grass. May we be ready to put in some elbow grease to remove the weeds to make things more just and accessible for people. May our songs reflect not just a simple faith, but an active faith. May we serve a God not of convenience, but one who strived to make things better for everyone. May we truly be the hands of God's work, as the ELCA motto says.

Stewards of Stuff

Do you find yourself being a steward of your "stuff," feeling tied down taking care of possessions? Owning so much that you're forced to invest time and more money in finding ways to organize all that you have? Not wearing all the clothes that you own even once a season, yet buying more on fashion impulse? Reaching for your credit card to buy the latest version of the gadgets and electronics that already control our lives just to gain a few more bells and whistles?

Our financial resources, no matter how we obtained them, ultimately are gifts from God. Stewarding our stuff means looking at how we're choosing to use those gifts. After we've taken care of our basic needs and planned for the future, are we to spend indiscriminately on whatever we want? Or are we to share so that others may survive?

Let's take time this summer to reflect on how we're using our money in our everyday lives. Today's advertising encourages us to buy the newest version of the latest fads—to be consumers—but do we really need more stuff?

Matthew 6:19-21 tells us:

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Consider this: what if for one month we all only bought what was necessary—groceries, medications, gas? Think about how much money we could save and how we could use it to better serve God and our neighbor.

Less "stuff" for us, more resources for God's work.

Pack a Sacks

After taking a year off due to COVID the Social Ministry Committee is once again collecting school supplies for IHOC (Interfaith Homeless Outreach Council) so please don't throw out your unused supplies—donate them. We were able to fill over 100 backpacks in 2019 through your generous donations, and we hope to exceed that amount this year. Please pick up a shopping backpack and return it to the church by August 22nd. You do not need to buy everything on the list, any donation will be accepted. There will be a big blue bin located just inside the Wayne Ave entrance for donations. Thank you in advance for your support. Any questions please contact Stacey Shaw 609-980-5547.

God's People and God's Planet and God's Animals

Reduce the Amount of Paper in Your Life

Do you know that 40% of the world's commercially cut timber is used for paper? This endangers natural habitats and uses a ton of water. Since it has become inexpensive to print, we do it without thinking. And less about thinking going paperless. Think about your bank statements, the paper towels you use to clean the countertops, the junk mail you haven't opted out of and the way you wrap your presents. There are many areas where each of us can help to lessen paper production.
